

'P90' Armchairs - Set of 8

DESIGNER
Giancarlo Vegni

MANUFACTURER
Fasem

A beautifully patinated set of eight saddle leather armchairs designed by Giancarlo Vegni for Fasem in 1982. A more modern and graceful design than the CAB chairs by Mario Bellini from the decade prior, the similarly stitched hide over steel frame P90 armchairs display the expert skill and craftsmanship in leather for which Fasem is known. Five buckles and straps on the underside of each chair allow for the hide to be tightened or loosened according to aesthetics or comfort. The lovely patina on the cognac-colored leather softens the chairs' angular lines for an outstanding set of modern, yet approachable armchairs.
