A beautiful and rare set of twelve 'TIR Bar' glasses by Roberto Sambonet for Baccarat from 1971. Housed in their original box and packaging, this series was designed by Sambonet to highlight the exceptional qualities of Baccarat crystal in a cylindrical form inspired by organ pipes. The thick, heavy base of each glass creates stunning refractions of light and magnifies whatever liquid is contained within. On average each glass weighs a substantial 525 grams and holds approximately 200 mL.
